Winifred writes from Rome that Mr. Caruso is giving her a one man show as a representative of his studio on the first 15 days in June in Rome. I do not know what value to place on such a show.

Natalie T. Lutz (Mrs. Wm. C.)
Winifred's mother

WINIFRED LUTZ

Miss Lutz was born in Brooklyn, New York and now .lives in Cleveland, She was born in 1942. She spent five years at the Cleveland Institute of Art on Scholarhsip. She is presently using the Agnes Gund Travel Art Scholarship, studying with S. Hayton in France and with Nino Caruso at the International School of Ceramics in Rome. Mr. Caruso gave her a one man show as a representative of his studio. This year she is attending Cranbrook Adademy. She works in ceramics, sculpture and graphics.

Her work has appeared in exhibition at the Contemporary Crafts Museum of New York , at the Chicago Art Festival and at the May Show for several years. The CMA now owns some of her work.
